Support the Shropshire Music Trust

Concerts of classical music can very rarely be run at a profit and SMT depends on the generosity of its supporters. We would be delighted if you would consider helping the Trust to continue promoting concerts in Shropshire by joining our supporter's scheme. There are full details on our website.

www.shropshiremusictrust.co.uk

The SMT website contains a wide range of information about the trust and its activities including details of current programmes, information about how to help the trust and an archive. Membership of the mailing list is free and you will receive regular emails updating you on the trust's activities, details of programme changes and of other musical activities in the county. To join the mailing list please follow the links on our website.

INTRODUCTION

Welcome to the 2021/22 Shropshire Music Trust Season. We are so pleased, after such a difficult time for us all, to have been able to re-programme artists from the cancelled second half of our 19/20 season, as well as bringing new talent to perform in Shropshire.

This season we have arranged for tickets for all of our events to be bookable either online or by phone through our agents TicketSource, with discounts available for multiple bookings. Full details are in this brochure and on our website. A limited number of tickets may be available at each performance for cash purchases.

We have arranged a varied programme for the coming season – information is available here and on our website www.shropshiremusictrust.co.uk

COVID restrictions may be imposed on us – any changes due to this will be notified in advance.

Keep in touch by signing up to our email list so that we can keep you up to date with all our news. Simply follow the Mailing List link on our website where you will also find details of the season's concerts, read about the Trust and the various ways in which you can support us.

We look forward to sharing our concerts with you.
